

For Better or Worse?

The Effects of Maternity Leave Provisions across Developing Countries

Kathleen M. Fallon, Stony Brook University

Alissa Mazar, McGill University

Liam Swiss, Memorial University (Presenting)

Work & Employment Speaker Series
Tuesday, April 14, 2015, 7:00pm
Arts & Administration Room A1045

This presentation will examine whether maternity leave policies benefit developing countries' economic growth, women's labor force participation, infant mortality rates, and birth rates.

Organized by the Master of Employment Relations Program

Free parking available in Lot 15B

www.mun.ca

